Ontario exports and imports by countries, commodities and industries

FOREWORD

This publication provides the user with statistical information on Ontario's foreign trade, classified respectively by countries, by commodity sections and by industry sectors, with an emphasis on trade in manufactured goods.

All statistical tables, unless specified otherwise, have been compiled by the Ministry of Industry and Tourism from data provided by Statistics Canada. The statistical section is preceded by a brief overview of world trade and a highlight of Canadian and Ontario exports and imports in 1979.

The terms "Ontario exports" and "Ontario imports" are used throughout this publication to denote respectively those portions of Canadian exports and Canadian imports which correspond to the following definitions by Statistics Canada:

1. Ontario Exports - Canadian exports reported to have had Ontario as the province of lading.
2. Ontario Imports - Canadian imports reported to have had Ontario as the province of clearance.

TRADE OVERVIEW 1979

1. World Trade

World's total commodity exports in 1979 increased by 25 per cent to US$1,622 billion at current export prices. In constant prices, the year's real increase was 7 per cent. The corresponding rates of increase for the previous year were 15 per cent at current prices and only 5 per cent constant, respectively.

The developed countries supplied 66 per cent of world exports, and were accountable for 69 per cent of world imports. The United States posted another US$24 billion in trade deficits in 1979 despite its increased competitiveness due to the declining value of the dollar. The developing countries provided 25 per cent of world exports and were responsible for 22 per cent of world imports.

The OPEC countries as a whole increased their exports by 40 per cent, followed by a 30 per cent increase shown by the developing countries of Asia. In comparison, Japanese exports in 1979 increased by 10 per cent in terms of yen, and only 5 per cent in dollar value.

2. Canada's Foreign Trade

Canadian exports increased by 24 per cent in 1979 to reach $65,518 million. Imports increased by 26 per cent to a total of $62,724 million. Based on the Customs clearance values, Canada had a trade surplus of nearly $3 billion, the same trade surplus recorded in 1978.

Measured in terms of volume, Canadian exports increased by 3 per cent, and Canadian imports by 11 per cent.

On the other hand, Canada's balance of trade in end products, inedible, set a new record of $16.0 billion in deficits. Canadian trade with the United States was responsible for nearly 80 per cent of the total trade deficits in these fully manufactured goods.

The United States accounted for 68 per cent of Canadian exports to the world and 72 per cent Canadian imports from the world. Japan, the United Kingdom, West Germany and the Netherlands were the next largest export markets for Canada in that order, accounting for another 14 per cent in total.

Japan, the United Kingdom, West Germany and Venezuela are also the next largest suppliers of Canadian imports, after the United States, with a combined market share of 11 per cent. Generally speaking, therefore, the United States and these four countries were responsible for approximately 84 per cent of Canada's export and import trade with the world in 1979.

For detailed statistics on Canadian exports and imports by countries and by commodities, the reader is advised to refer to publications from Statistics Canada, External Trade Series 65-001 through 65-203.

3. Ontario's Foreign Trade

a. General Review

Ontario's exports increased by 15 per cent in 1979 to reach $26.8 billion. Ontario imports, on the other hand, made a 26 per cent growth to exceed $35.8 billion in the same year. (See Foreword for definitions of "Ontario exports" and "Ontario imports" as used in this publication.)

Ontario was accountable for 41 per cent of goods exported by Canada, and 57 per cent of goods imported by this country in 1979. Ontario's balance of trade was $9.0 billion in deficit in 1979, as compared with a surplus of $2.8 billion in the total trade balance of Canada.

Total	65,518	62,724	2,794

b. Ontario Exports

Ontario exports to the United States totalled $21,729 million in 1979, and accounted for 81 per cent of goods exported to all countries by this province. (In comparison, only 59 per cent of exports from the rest of Canada is attributable to the United States in the same year.)

Twelve other countries to which Ontario exported more than $100 million during the year were United Kingdom, Venezuela, West Germany, Australia, the Netherlands, Japan, Saudi Arabia, USSR, France, Mexico, Belgium, Luxembourg and Argentina, totalling $3.2 billion and accounting for 12 per cent of total Ontario exports. The rest of the world is responsible for the remaining 7 per cent. (See Statistical Section for details of Ontario exports by countries.)

Over two-thirds of Ontario exports were inedible end products, and almost three-quarters of these fully manufactured exports were automobiles and automotive parts. At $9.8 billion, the value of automotive products shipped to the United States alone was equivalent to 91 per cent of all automotive exports, 59 per cent of all end product exports, and 37 per cent of all exports made by this province in 1979.

The value also constituted 76 per cent of all inedible end products and 49 per cent of all goods exported to that country by Ontario during the year. (See Statistical Section for details of Ontario exports by commodity sections.)

Leading export commodities in each of the commodity sections and their relative importance within the respective sections are shown in the following:

Analyses of Ontario exports by 106 manufacturing industries (3-digit Standard Industrial Classifications) reveal that the automobile and auto parts industries were accountable for 43 per cent of all manufactured goods exported by this province in 1979. Eighteen other industries, each exporting more than $200 million, contributed another 47 per cent, and the remaining 86 industries 10 per cent. (See Statistical Section for details of Ontario exports by industries.)

c. Ontario Imports

The United States maintained its 85 per cent share of Ontario imports in 1979, measured in terms of goods cleared at points located in this province. The United Kingdom, Japan, West Germany, Italy and France were the next 5 largest suppliers, accounting for another 7 per cent.

Altogether, more than 96 per cent of Ontario imports came from the countries of developed market economies, and less than 4 per cent from the developing countries. Taiwan, Hong Kong, South Korea and Brazil are the developing countries, each of which supplied more than $100 million of goods to Ontario in 1979, accounting for 1.9 per cent of Ontario imports. (See Statistical Section for details of Ontario imports by countries.)

Inedible end products made up more than 67 per cent of Ontario imports, compared with 51 per cent for the rest of Canada. Automotive imports from the United States alone accounted for over 32 per cent of Ontario imports, but less than 8 for the other provinces. The value of U.S. automotive products imported into Ontario in 1979 was $11.7 billion, more than 5 times as high as that of the rest of Canada at $2.2 billion.

Nearly all the $9 billion deficit incurred by Ontario in its overall trade balance in 1979 was attributable to the inedible end products section, where imports of $24.2 billion exceeded exports of $16.7 billion by $7.5 billion. Ontario's balance of automotive trade with the United States turned into a deficit of $1,433 million in 1979 from the $143 million surplus recorded in the previous year.

More than one-half of semi-manufactured goods and nearly two-thirds of fully manufactured goods imported by Canada in 1979 were destined for Ontario. (See Statistical Section, Table II for details of Ontario imports by commodities.)

Leading Ontario Imports Classified
By Corresponding Ontario Industries 1979

The 1979 data on Ontario-cleared imports, tabulated by Statistics Canada according to the Import Commodity Classification (MCC) code, have been processed and analyzed by the Ministry of Industry and Tourism and regrouped according to the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) to produce the results shown as the "Canadian and Ontario Imports by Industrial Sector" in the Statistical Section of this publication.

The value of Ontario imports listed for each industry is not to be interpreted as the value of goods imported or used by that industry in Ontario, although a varied portion of the imports may have been. A more appropriate interpretation would equate it with the value of goods for which each corresponding Ontario industry could have provided a domestic supply if it had possessed all the necessary resources to do so. The resulting data are, in this context, suggestive to those who are interested in the relative size of import replacement market for each of the 162 Ontario industries. (108 3-digit SIC industries and 54 4-digit SIC industries).
